MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO Luchar por el bien común es la respuesta que debemos dar al evangelio de este domingo. No hay otra manera, y el mensaje es muy claro, no existe manera de suavizarlo. Lucas mira un solo punto, y es la justicia. La escena del evangelio nos narra que Jesús desciende del cerro y se detiene en un llano. Hay mucha gente de diferentes partes, muchos esperan ser curados por Jesús. Entonces, Jesús, dirige su mirada a sus discípulos y comienza su discurso. Les habla de la importancia de ser felices. Sí, Jesús llama felices a los pobres y a los enfermos. ¿Cómo podemos entender y asimilar ese llamado a la felicidad? ¿Que acaso no es contradictorio? El mensaje está en que, al ver la pobreza, el hambre, la enfermedad, la guerra, la oportunidad, la educación, por mencionar algunas injusticias en el mundo del tiempo de Jesús y el tiempo nuestro, estemos dispuestos a dar la vida por la justicia y la paz. Entonces, es que el Reino de Dios florecerá para todos. Y esa es la verdadera felicidad que la Palabra de Dios hoy nos menciona. Pidamos al Señor que nos incomode la injusticia, que nos mueva a tener empatía para entender los problemas y sentimientos de los demás. Porque, de esa manera seremos felices e incansables luchadores del bien común. La recompensa es grande, es el cielo, es la promesa de Jesús. El sacrificio bien llevado y con intención recta, desde el fondo del corazón, es la felicidad. ¿Lo has experimentado? -©LPi	GOSPEL MEDITATION I craved four things as a teenager: success in sports, food, fun and the attention of popular people. However, I noticed that as I acquired them, I was more unsatisfied than before. So, I'd strive even more energetically, achieve more, and the sense of emptiness was greater still. These four things started to feel like burdens or even curses. Soon after, I encountered Christ in my high school youth group. Experiencing his love was totally different than anything those four things previously produced. It produced a lasting happiness. Jesus utters a kind of four-fold curse in this week's Gospel of Saint Luke's "woes": "Woe to you who are rich...who are filled now... who laugh now...who are well-spoken of" (cf. Luke 6:24-26). How marvelous that these correspond perfectly to the four things that obsessed my teenage soul: riches, food, laughter and good reputation. The "woes" the Lord speaks are warnings: when those things are the purpose of your life, you'll be miserable. He is saying, "You'll be happy, or blessed, in the measure that these things do not determine the shape of our lives, and the kingdom of God does." To some degree, we're all spiritual teenagers, addicted to one or more of those four "woes." How splendid that the Lord wants his to bless us — that is, to satisfy us, make us laugh with joy, and in the kingdom of God, offer us what will truly satisfy us. But first let's admit what is causing our "woes." <small>-Father John Muir</small>
RECONOCE A DIOS EN TUS MOMENTOS ORDINARIOS Por Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman Al Final, ¿Importa? Cuando era adolescente, el sacerdote al que acudía para confesarme solía decirme, una y otra vez: "Al final, todos tendremos el mismo agujero sucio en el suelo." Lo que quería decir era que no importa cuán ricos, inteligentes o queridos seamos. Todos vamos al mismo lugar. Esta vida llega a su fin para todo hombre. Todo el dinero que gane, todas las cosas, toda la estima mundana, en algún momento ya no le servirán. Todos tendremos el mismo agujero sucio en el suelo. Fue un mensaje importante para mí, porque en ese momento, todo parecía muy importante: mi trabajo después de la escuela y mi solicitud de FAFSA y mis calificaciones. La admiración de mis amigos y maestros. Estaba tan obsesionada con lo que iba a llegar a ser que no pasaba mucho tiempo pensando en quién me iba a convertir. Pero el quién es lo único que dura hasta la próxima vida. Y para ser honesta, todo sigue siendo demasiado importante para mí. Evitar la tristeza y la decepción. Ahorrar dinero y ser querida. Centrándome en "el plan de cinco años" en lo que respecta a la carrera, los planes de la casa y un montón de otras cosas que no puedo llevar a mi sucio agujero en el suelo. Jesús fue radical en su enseñanza de que las "cosas" de la vida no eran tan importantes. Era radical para él decir que los signos mundanos del éxito —riqueza, popularidad, placer— no significaban mucho en el gran esquema de las cosas y que el sufrimiento podía santificarnos. Era radical en el mundo antiguo, y es radical hoy. ¿Estamos dispuestos a ser radicales también? -©LPi	RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman In the End, Does it Matter? When I was a teenager, the priest I would go to for confession used to tell me, over and over: "In the end, we all get the same dirty hole in the ground." What he meant was, it doesn't matter how rich or smart or well-liked we are. We're all heading to the same place. This life comes to an end for every man. All the money he earns, all the stuff, all the worldly esteem, will at some point be of no further use. We all get the same dirty hole in the ground. It was an important message for me to hear, because at the time, it all seemed so important: my after-school job and my FAFSA application and my grades. The admiration of my friends and teachers. I was so consumed with what I was going to become that I wasn't spending a lot of time thinking about who I was going to become. But the who is the only thing that lasts until the next life. And to be honest, it's all still too important to me. Avoiding sadness and disappointment. Saving money and being liked. Focusing on "the five-year plan" when it comes to career, house plans, and a whole bunch of other things I can't take to my dirty hole in the ground. Jesus was radical in his teaching that the "stuff" in life wasn't all that important. It was radical for him to say that the worldly signs of success — wealth, popularity, pleasure — did not amount to a whole lot in the grand scheme of things and that suffering could sanctify us. It was radical in the ancient world, and it's radical today. Are we ready to be radical, too? -LPi

CALLED TO CHOOSE WHAT LEADS TO LIFE

Today's Liturgy of the Word invites us to reflect on two fundamental choices: blessing or curse, life or death. We choose the best when we put our trust in the Lord and live according to this choice. Such is the message of the Beatitudes. The Lord should be our only Treasure, our Friend, our Guide, and our final Reward.

In our celebration of the Eucharist, we will pray in a special manner for the grace to always stay close to the Lord and live by the light of his Beatitudes. We will also pray for those who are blinded by their passions and make choices that are destructive of their dignity and endanger their eternal salvation. May all of us see the light and live according to the teaching and example of Jesus.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK: How do you make use of the blessings given to us by the Lord? How do you use the "riches" you have received to alleviate the plight of the poor?

Whatever you have – has been given.
Whatever you give – will be returned.

Please remember Saint Eugene in your Last Will and Testament

"Blessed are you when people hate you,...exclude and insult you, and denounce your name...on account of the Son of Man." (LUKE 6:22)

All of us have been in situations when someone has made a negative comment or joke about God or our Catholic faith. How did you respond? Did you stay silent or pretend to go along with the crowd because you didn't want to cause waves and then, later, you felt bad? Know that God is with you all the time; the Holy Spirit will put the right words in your mouth. Pray for the strength and courage to proclaim our faith to others, especially during uncomfortable situations.

Todos ustedes habrán estado en situaciones en las cuales alguien hizo comentarios negativos o se burló de Dios o de su fe Católica. ¿Cómo respondieron? Se quedaron callados o pretendieron seguirle la corriente a la multitud porque no querían causar problemas y entonces, más tarde, ¿se sintieron mal? Sepa que Dios está con usted todo el tiempo; el Espíritu Santo pondrá las palabras correctas en su boca. Rece para tener fortaleza y valor para proclamar su fe a los demás, especialmente durante situaciones incómodas.

Te amo sobre todas las cosas y deseo vivamente recibirte dentro de mi alma,

Te abrazo y me uno del todo a Ti.
Señor, no permitas que jamás me aparte

I love you above all things

I embrace you as if you were already
