Oración de Vida Cristiana Querido Jesús, Ayúdame a orar y bendecir a todas las personas con las que me encuentre, ya sea fácil o difícil. Ayúdame a actuar en la misericordia que he conocido a través de ti. Ayúdame a demostrar generosidad, ya que me has dado tanto. Amén.	Prayer of Christian Life Dear Jesus, Help me to pray for and bless everyone I encounter, whether that be easy or hard. Help me to act in the mercy I have known through you. Help me to demonstrate generosity, as you have given so much to me. Amen.
MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO Hoy el Evangelio nos propone una catequesis de amor que obliga a estirar el corazón, para rendir al máximo al pedido de Jesús. Nos impulsa a pensar distinto, a interesarnos por los demás. Llama al perdón, a la nobleza, la humildad y, lo más importante, a saber, compartir lo que poseemos materialmente y darse uno mismo. Es algo difícil lo que pide el Señor en este pasaje del Evangelio. Eso, de amar a los enemigos, hacer el bien a quien no nos quiere, de orar por los que nos persiguen, es fuera de serie, no se usa en la sociedad actual. Y agrega Jesús lo siguiente: “Traten a los demás como quieren que ellos les traten a ustedes” (Lucas 6:31). No se trata de que estemos siempre con la cabeza baja y humillados, mas bien se trata de luchar por la justicia, de no entrar en la violencia de tú me la haces, entonces, yo te respondo igual. “Porque si ustedes aman a los que los aman, ¿Qué merito tienen? Hasta los malos aman a los que los aman (Lucas 6:32). Por el contrario, bendecir a los amigos y enemigos es lo que nos hace dignos hijos e hijas de Dios. Pidamos el don de perdonar, de no ser vengativos, de tener un corazón de compasión, rebosante de ternura para hacer el bien. “Sean compasivos como es compasivo el Padre de ustedes” (Lucas 6:36). Ser semejantes al que siempre es bueno con nosotros. ¡Ese es el reto a cumplir! -CLP!	GOSPEL MEDITATION One of my favorite new singers/songwriters is Noah Kahan. I’m a little biased because, like me, he is originally from Vermont. In a fine song entitled “Stick Season,” he sings of his hope to “cancel out the darkness I inherited from dad.” This lyric articulates his painful recognition of a dark spiritual “inheritance” from his father, and his hope to be free of it. We all inherit some degree of evil from our earthly forebears. It’s easy to feel doomed to repeat their darknesses. But we’re not so doomed, thank God. This week’s Gospel proclaims this. Whatever good or bad we received from our parents, we have a more definitive and perfect inheritance in God. Jesus commands us, “Be merciful just as your Father is merciful” (Luke 6:36). We have a perfect Father in heaven and are destined to inherit and reflect that perfect and merciful love. We have an inheritance of light, not darkness, and thus a whole new possibility of magnanimous love. Like any inheritance, this is a free gift to us. What are we destined to repeat? Not the darkness of our earthly parents. We are destined to be a reflection of God’s life. Jesus liberates us from the inevitability of repeating whatever evils and imperfections are in our familial or cultural upbringings. It’s time to claim that perfect inheritance. -Father John Muir
RECONOCE A DIOS EN TUS MOMENTOS ORDINARIOS Por Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman El Juicio y el Amor “Oh, bueno. Voy a ir al infierno de todos modos, ¿verdad?” Tengo algunos familiares y amigos que no son católicos practicantes que me dicen esto de vez en cuando. Siempre se habla de manera burlona, con un guiño y un encogimiento de hombros, generalmente para explicar algún tipo de mal comportamiento menor por el que se sienten culpables. Me entristece que los cristianos de alguna manera se hayan ganado esta reputación como un pueblo que juzga, que condena. Creo que, en parte, se deriva de un malentendido por parte de las personas que no asisten a la iglesia (y también a muchas personas que asisten a la iglesia) con respecto a lo que constituye "juzgar." No es en absoluto "juzgar" a alguien que no esté de acuerdo con una decisión personal, sea cual sea esa decisión, o que se niegue a participar en esa decisión. Todos tenemos conciencias funcionales; Se supone que todos debemos discernir la bondad moral de cualquier acción antes de llevarla a cabo. Pero si es juzgar a alguien si permitimos que sus decisiones afecten la forma en que lo tratamos. El Evangelio de hoy es una invitación para que consideremos cómo nos relacionamos con las personas que no están de acuerdo con nosotros, o tal vez incluso a quien le desagradamos activamente. Mucho se habla en estos días de las "guerras culturales." Ciertamente no estoy en desacuerdo con que a menudo se puede sentir como si estuvieras peleando una guerra cuando estás tratando de vivir como la Iglesia enseña. Las fuerzas en tu contra a menudo parecen abrumadoras y nefastas. ¿Y adivina qué? Lo son. Pero necesitamos recordar quién es realmente el enemigo. El enemigo no son los otros hijos de Dios, incluso si son hijos de Dios que están promoviendo activamente ideas que son incorrectas. Tal vez estas personas estén equivocadas y mal guiadas. Tal vez estén engañados por el diablo. ¿No hemos sido todos engañados por él en algún momento? Debemos interactuar amorosamente con personas que piensan y viven de manera diferente a nosotros. La vida cristiana lo exige absolutamente. -CLP!	RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman Judgment and Love “Oh, well. I’m going to hell anyway, right?” I have a few family members and friends who are not practicing Catholics who say this to me from time to time. It’s always spoken in a teasing manner, with a wink and a shoulder shrug, usually to explain away some sort of minor misbehavior they feel guilty about. It saddens me that Christians have somehow gained this reputation as a people who judge, who condemn. I think in part it stems from a misunderstanding on the part of unchurched people (and lots of churched ones, too) regarding what constitutes “judging.” It is absolutely not “judging” someone to disagree with a personal decision, whatever that decision may be, or to decline from participating in that decision. We all have functioning consciences; we are all supposed to discern the moral goodness of any action before we take it. But it is judging someone if we allow their decisions to impact how we treat them. Today’s Gospel is an invitation for us to consider how we engage with people who disagree with us — or maybe even actively dislike us. Much is said these days of the “culture wars.” I certainly don’t disagree that it can often feel like you’re fighting a war when you’re trying to live as the Church teaches. The forces against you often seem overwhelming and nefarious. And guess what? They are. But we need to remember who the enemy really is. The enemy is not other children of God, even if they are children of God who are actively promoting ideas that are wrong. Perhaps these people are misguided and mistaken. Perhaps they are misled by the devil. Have we not all been misled by him at some point? We must interact lovingly with people who think differently and live differently from us. The Christian life absolutely demands it. -LP!

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Ash Wednesday

Question:

Is Ash Wednesday a holy day of obligation?

Answer:

Despite the often packed churches, you may be surprised to hear that the answer is no! Holy days of obligation commemorate a particular event (such as the birth of Christ at Christmas) or celebrate particular people (such as Mary's Immaculate Conception or the feast of All Saints). Ash Wednesday is a day of penance, fasting, and abstinence to begin the season of Lent. In a sense, it focuses on a concept rather than something particular and concrete.

Of course, repentance ought to be reflected in particular, concrete ways! That's one of the reasons that attending Mass on Ash Wednesday is a very good idea. It marks the beginning of a solemn season of penance. Despite all its comparisons to the desert, Lent can be very fruitful for our spiritual growth! Beginning this season with the celebration of Mass and the reception of ashes is a sign of our commitment to God and to spiritual growth.

Please remember Saint Eugene in your Last Will and Testament

“But rather, love your enemies and do good to them, and lend without expecting anything back...” - LUKE 6:35

Easier said than done, right?

But, if we are to imitate Christ, most of us need to practice mercy and compassion more frequently. Start with the little daily annoyances that we experience, the unkind word or hateful glance we receive. Instead of plotting revenge on that person, try saying a quick prayer for that person. Praying for our enemies doesn't change them, it changes us. Mercy and compassion will keep us on the path to holiness.

DUE TO HOLIDAY SCHEDULES, THERE IS NO OFFERTORY UPDATE AVAILABLE.

“Antes bien, amen a sus enemigos, y háganles bien, y presten sin esperar nada a cambio...” - LUCAS 6:35

Eso es más fácil decirlo que hacerlo, ¿verdad? Sin embargo, si queremos imitar a Cristo, la mayoría de nosotros necesita practicar la misericordia y la compasión más frecuentemente. Comience con las pequeñas dificultades que experimentamos diariamente, las palabras poco amables o las miradas de odio que recibimos. En lugar de preparar venganza, trate de decir una rápida oración por esa persona. Rezar por nuestros enemigos no los cambia a ellos, nos cambia a nosotros. La misericordia y la compasión nos mantienen en el camino de la santidad.

Jesús mío, que estás real y verdaderamente en el Cielo y en el Santísimo Sacramento del altar. Te amo sobre todas las cosas y deseo vivamente recibirte dentro de mi alma, pero no pudiendo hacerlo ahora sacramentalmente, ven al menos espiritualmente a mi corazón. Y como si ya te hubiese recibido, Te abrazo y me uno del todo a Ti. Señor, no permitas que jamás me aparte de Ti. AMEN

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. AMEN
