SANTO DE LA SEMANA – EJEMPLOS DE NUESTRA FE

Beato Pier Giorgio Frassati

El Beato Pier Giorgio Frassati (1901-1925) fue un ávido amante de la naturaleza y se ha convertido en un patrón mundial para los jovencitos y adultos jóvenes. Tuvo dificultades con los exámenes y problemas con sus padres, pero formó su vida en torno a Jesús. San Juan Pablo II lo declaró patrón de las Jornadas Mundiales de la Juventud.

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO

¡Viva Cristo Rey! Viva nuestro Rey, es la forma de expresar el agradecimiento y el amor del pueblo hispano hacia esta gran Solemnidad. Con esta Solemnidad se termina el ciclo litúrgico B y daremos comienzo al ciclo C. Es decir, el próximo domingo daremos comienzo al tiempo de Adviento e iniciamos el nuevo Año Litúrgico. “Dios todopoderoso y eterno, que quisiste fundamentar todas las cosas en tu Hijo muy amado, Rey del universo, concede, benigno, que toda la creación, liberada de la esclavitud del pecado, sirva a tu majestad y te alabe eternamente (Oración Colecta). En la Primera lectura del Profeta Daniel se anuncia su reinado: “Su poder es el poder eterno que nunca pasará; su reino no será destruido” (Daniel 7:14). Realeza eterna y universal era la visión del Profeta Daniel.

¿Crees que Jesucristo es reconocido en la actualidad como Rey del universo? ¿Es Jesús el Rey de las familias? Si reflexionamos cuidadosamente, nos daremos cuenta de que, a través de los años, pasan los gobiernos, pasan los reyes de las diferentes jerarquías, gobiernan y reinan, pero mueren. Sin embargo, Jesús es el Rey eterno que nunca pasará. Y esto es lo que debe ser enseñado en cada hogar cristiano: “Yo soy el Alfa y la Omega, dice el Señor Dios, el que Es, que era y que ha de venir, el Todopoderoso” (Apocalipsis 1:8). Ojalá, que en cada hogar reine el Señor para siempre y que nos de su bendición y su paz.

Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

(Dn 7:13-14/ Rv 1:5-8/Jn 18:33b-37)

SAINT OF THE WEEK – EXAMPLES OF OUR FAITH

Blessed Pier Giorgio Frassati

Blessed Pier Giorgio Frassati (1901-1925) was an avid outdoorsman and has become a global patron for youth and young adults. He had difficulties with exams and problems with his parents, but he formed his life around Jesus. St. John Paul II declared him a patron for World Youth Days.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

When I was a young boy in Burlington, Vermont, my dad had a good friend named Phil who owned a sporting goods store. I loved sports, so meandering the treasure-filled aisles was an unmitigated joy. One afternoon, we were shopping for a baseball glove. Dad said to me, “Hey Johnny, see that man who just walked into the store? That’s Phil.” I remember being fascinated and a little terrified. I recall thinking, “That man right there is in charge of everything in this store!” He reigned over every ball, sneaker, jersey, and sweatsuit. Phil became a family friend. And he was a good owner. The store flourished, and I found myself even more at peace every time I went there. I felt a new hope and even responsibility for the store to flourish.

To say that Christ is the King of the Universe means that Jesus has absolute authority over everything in it. It should fill us with awe and fascination. He is in charge. The world and everything in it are finally his. Knowing that he knows and loves us should make us also feel a deep peace at being a part of his universe. This leads us to want his kingdom to flourish, to play some responsible role in it.

We advance his kingdom by promoting the truth. “Everyone who is of the truth hears my voice,” Christ the King proclaims. In Phil’s store, it was about the truth of athletics. In our world, it’s all about the truth of all creation, especially the dignity of the human person, made by and for our loving God. Let’s rejoice that we know the true king and commit to the flourishing of his kingdom.

RECONOCE A DIOS EN TUS MOMENTOS ORDINARIOS

Por Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Ciudadanos de Otro País

Leí un artículo, hace años, sobre un cineasta estadounidense que decidió alejarse de una franquicia cinematográfica de gran éxito que le había exigido a él y a su familia vivir en el extranjero. Se me quedó grabado en la mente por el razonamiento irónico que dio para la sorprendente decisión: “Mis hijos estaban empezando a hablar con acento británico”.

A veces, solo queremos irnos a casa, ¿no?

Al regresar de unas vacaciones familiares recientes, rompí en llanto en el aeropuerto, abrumada por el alivio cuando vi que la camioneta de mi hermana se detenía en el carril de recogida. No importaba que me hubiera divertido en este viaje y que incluso estuviera deseando hacer otro. En ese momento, estaba tan cansada y todo lo que quería era mi propia cama. El olor de mi propia casa. La sensación de no estar “lejos”.

Si Jesús es nuestro rey, y su reino no es de este mundo, entonces vivimos nuestras vidas como extranjeros perpetuos. Esto debería tranquilizarnos de alguna manera. El mundo a menudo se siente frío, cruel y extraño para nosotros porque lo es. No fuimos hechos para este mundo. Fuimos hechos para el cielo. Fuimos hechos para anhelar el rostro, la presencia, la protección de nuestro Rey. Pero esta comprensión de nosotros mismos como extranjeros en una tierra extranjera también debería ser una advertencia para nosotros.

No podemos sentirnos demasiado cómodos aquí. No podemos envolvernos demasiado en el mundo y sus tentaciones, sus recompensas, sus comodidades. No podemos empezar a hablar en el idioma, el acento de nuestra patria adoptiva. No si alguna vez queremos volver a casa y pertenecer allí. Nuestro Rey espera nuestro regreso.

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Citizens of Another Country

I read an article, years ago, about an American filmmaker who decided to step away from a wildly successful film franchise that had been requiring him and his family to live abroad. It stuck in my mind because of the tongue-in-cheek reasoning he gave for the surprising decision, “My kids were starting to speak in British accents.”

Sometimes, we just want to go home, don’t we?

Returning from a recent family vacation, I burst into tears at the airport, overcome with relief when I saw my sister’s van pulling into the pickup lane. It didn’t matter that I had had fun on this trip and that I was even looking forward to taking another one. In that moment, I was so tired, and all I wanted was my own bed. The smell of my own house. The feeling of not being “away.”

If Jesus is our king, and his kingdom is not of this world, then we live our lives as perpetual aliens. This should reassure us in some ways. The world so often feels cold and cruel and strange to us because it is. We were not made for this world. We were made for heaven. We were made to yearn for the face, the presence, the protection of our King.

But this understanding of ourselves as strangers in a foreign land should also be a caution to us.

We can’t get too comfortable here. We cannot become too wrapped up in the world and its temptations, its rewards, its comforts. We cannot start speaking in the language, the accent of our adopted homeland. Not if we ever want to return home and belong there. Our King looks for our return.

WE AWAIT IN HOPE THE RETURN OF THE LORD

ALL HAIL TO THE KING OF OUR HEARTS!

On this last Sunday of the liturgical year, we are invited to renew our total allegiance to Jesus as our Lord and King. He deserves no less than that.

Today, we have also a new opportunity to realize the immense number of graces the Lord has granted us in the course of this liturgical year. And as we call to mind these favors, we gladly express our most sincere gratitude for them.

God's Reign is a "kingdom within." It encompasses the whole person: body, mind, heart. Nothing that is human escapes it. And all are invited to be part of it – all races, cultures, traditions, languages can find in it not just a place but their "home." This Kingdom will last forever. The splendor of its achievements and the fulfillment of its program span beyond the boundaries of time and earthly decay. God's Reign is everlasting. It shares in the eternity of its Ruler and draws its vitality from the very Source of Life.

At this Eucharist, let us renew the consecration of ourselves, our families, and the entire nation to Jesus, King of the universe. Let this act of worship be a clear manifestation of our love for him who is our Lord and Savior, and a treasured opportunity to recommit ourselves to be his loyal subjects and faithful followers. HAIL TO CHRIST THE KING!! QUE VIVA CRISTO REY!!

QUESTION OF THE WEEK:

How do you strive to follow the ways of Christ's sacrificial kingship that entails accepting the conditions of this fragmented world, with all its suffering and mortality? Do you try to be more receptive to the kingship of Jesus by fulfilling the mystery of his passion, death, and resurrection in the witness of your own personal life?

Feast of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

“Jesus answered, ‘My kingdom does not belong to this world.’ (JOHN 18:36)

Life is short. How much time, energy and money do you put into building “your” kingdom here on earth? We all know we can’t take it with us. The real kingdom is in the next life. Yet, how much time, energy and money do you invest in working for that eternal kingdom? Ask God for His guidance. Detach from earthly possessions. Generously share your material goods with others for the greater glory of God.

“Jesús respondió, ‘Mi reino no pertenece a este mundo.’ (JUAN 18:36)

La vida es corta. ¿Cuánto tiempo, energía y dinero invierte usted para construir “su” reino aquí en la tierra? Todos sabemos que no podemos llevárnoslo con nosotros. El verdadero reino está en la próxima vida. Y, aun así, ¿Cuánto tiempo, energía y dinero invierte en trabajar para el reino eterno? Pídale a Dios que lo guíe. Despréndase de sus posesiones terrenales. Comparta generosamente sus bienes materiales con otros para la mayor gloria de Dios.

Jesús mío, que estás real y verdaderamente en el Cielo
y en el Santísimo Sacramento del altar.
Te amo sobre todas las cosas y deseo vivamente recibirte dentro de mi alma, pero no pudiendo hacerlo ahora sacramentalmente, ven al menos espiritualmente a mi corazón.
Y como si ya te hubiese recibido,
Te abrazo y me uno del todo a Ti.
Señor, no permitas que jamás me aparte
de Ti. AMEN

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love you above all things
and I desire to receive you in my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment
receive you sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you.
Never permit me to be separated from you.
AMEN

Adsumus Sancte Spiritus

“Estamos ante ti, Espíritu Santo”

Estamos ante ti, Espíritu Santo, reunidos en tu nombre.
Tú que eres nuestro verdadero consejero: ven a nosotros, apóyanos, entra en nuestros corazones.
Enséñanos el camino, muéstranos cómo alcanzar la meta.
Impide que perdamos el rumbo como personas débiles y pecadoras.
No permitas que la ignorancia nos lleve por falsos caminos. Concédenos el don del discernimiento, para que no dejemos que nuestras acciones se guíen por prejuicios y falsas consideraciones. Condúcenos a la unidad en ti, para que no nos desviemos del camino de la verdad y la justicia, sino que en nuestro peregrinaje terrenal nos esforcemos por alcanzar la vida eterna. Esto te lo pedimos a ti, que obras en todo tiempo y lugar, en comunión con el Padre y el Hijo por los siglos de los siglos. Amén.

Adsumus Sancte Spiritus

“We stand before You, Holy Spirit,”

We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your Name. With You alone to guide us, make Yourself at home in our hearts;

Teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it. We are weak and sinful; do not let us promote disorder. Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path nor partiality influence our actions.

Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of Truth and what is right.
All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time, in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever. Amen.
