La Virgen de Guadalupe

Las apariciones de la Virgen de Guadalupe al indio Juan Diego en México en el Cerro del Tepeyac, fueron entre el 9 y 12 de diciembre de 1531. Tras el milagro de la última aparición de la Virgen el 12 de diciembre de 1531, donde aparece en la tilma la Imagen de Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe la que se conserva en la basílica de México. Desde entonces este hecho se celebra con gran devoción, los peregrinos llegan de todos lugares a la basílica, muchos de ellos caminan largas jornadas para agradecer a nuestra Virgen su intersección. Los peregrinos son acompañados por bailarines aztecas y recitan el Santo Rosario. Cada año, los peregrinos van de casa en casa desde el 1 de diciembre. Hasta el día 12 donde se hace una gran celebración en la Iglesia.

The apparitions of the Virgin of Guadalupe to the Indian Juan Diego took place at Cerro del Tepeyac, Mexico between December 9 & 12, 1531. After the miracle of the last apparition on December 12, when the image of Our Lady appeared on the Juan Diego's tilma, it was preserved in the Basilica of Mexico. Since then, her appearance is celebrated with great devotion. Pilgrims come from all over the world to the basilica. Many walk long journeys to thank our Virgin for her intercession. The pilgrims are accompanied by Aztec dancers and recite the Holy Rosary. Each year the pilgrims go from house to house from December 1-12 where there is great celebration.

Las Posadas

Las Posadas son un medio para preparar con alegría y oración nuestro corazón para la venida de Jesucristo. Inician el 16 de diciembre y terminan el día 24. Historia: En 1587 San Agustín de Acolman obtuvo del Papa Sixto V, un permiso de celebración de unas misas llamadas 'de aguinaldos' en las cuales se intercalaban pasajes y escenas de la Navidad. Con el tiempo se agregaron las luces y la piñata. Y los misioneros convocaban al pueblo en las Iglesias y conventos y ahí rezaban una Novena que iniciaba con el rezo del Santo Rosario, cantos y representaciones del Evangelio recordando la espera del niño Jesús y el peregrinar de José y María. Las posadas se llevan a cabo nueve días previos a la Navidad simbolizando los nueve meses de espera de María. Al terminar se reparten a los asistentes fruta y dulces como signo de las gracias que recibían aquellos que aceptaban la doctrina de Jesús. Con el tiempo las posadas comenzaron a llevarse a cabo en barrios y casas.

The Posada is meant to prepare our hearts with joy and prayer for the coming of Jesus Christ. Traditionally they begin on December 16 and end on December 24. History: In 1587, San Agustín de Acolman obtained from Pope Sixtus V permission to celebrate masses called 'Aguinaldos' during which passages and scenes of Christmas were interspersed. The Mexican missionaries called the people to the churches and convents where they prayed a Novena with the Holy Rosary, sang, and performed Gospel passages remembering the pilgrimage of Joseph and Mary and the expectation of the child Jesus. Over time lights and the piñata were added to the celebration. Posadas are held nine days before Christmas symbolizing the nine months of Mary's pregnancy. At the end, fruits and sweets are distributed to the participants as a sign of the graces received by those who accept the doctrine of Jesus. As time passed the Posadas began to take place in homes and neighborhoods.

PREPARE THE WAY OF THE LORD!

As we progress in our spiritual pilgrimage toward the shrine of Jesus' manger, on this Second Sunday of Advent, St. John the Baptist reminds us that we need to prepare ourselves adequately for our encounter with the Lord. We must prove the seriousness of our resolve to change for the better, each of us in our own situation.

St. Paul gives us some practical tips about what this preparation can mean, as he invites us to live in perfect harmony with one another, accepting one another as Christ has accepted us. Only on these conditions shall we be able to glorify God with one voice and one heart as loving children should, particularly in this Advent season.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK: Do you hear the prophetic cry of John the Baptist in the wilderness of our hearts: "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand!"? What is your response to this challenge?

Whatever you have – has been given.
Whatever you give – will be returned.

Please remember Saint Eugene in your Last Will and Testament

"And this is my prayer: that your love may increase ever more and more in knowledge and every kind of perception, to discern what is of value..." (PHILIPPIANS 1:9-10)

During the Christmas shopping season it is easy to get caught up in the frenzy of buying gifts. But, is that "gift" truly an expression of your love for the other person. Or, are you just fulfilling your "obligation" to give them something? To grow in friendship with someone, you need to spend time with them and learn what is of value to them. Maybe this year, buy less "stuff" and spend more time with those you love.

Thank you for your continued generous support of St Eugene!

"Y esta es mi oración: que su amor se exprese cada vez con más conocimiento y entendimiento; para que distingan lo que es realmente importante de lo que no lo es..." (Filipenses 1:9-10)

Durante la temporada de compras navideñas es fácil quedarse atrapado en el frenesí de la compra de regalos. Sin embargo, ¿ese regalo es realmente una expresión de su amor por la otra persona? ¿O, lo hace solo como su "obligación" de darle algo? Para que la amistad con otras personas crezca, usted necesita pasar tiempo con ellos y aprender lo que es valioso para ellos. Quizás este año, compre menos "cosas" y pase más tiempo con sus seres queridos.

Jesús mío, que estás real y verdaderamente en el Cielo
y en el Santísimo Sacramento del altar.
Te amo sobre todas las cosas y deseo vivamente recibirte dentro de mi alma, pero no pudiendo hacerlo ahora
sacramentalmente, ven al menos espiritualmente a mi corazón.
Y como si ya te hubiese recibido,
Te abrazo y me uno del todo a Ti.
Señor, no permitas que jamás me aparte
de Ti. AMEN

you are present in the Most Holy

I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment
receive you sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you.
Never permit me to be separated from you.

THURSDAYS: DEVOTION TO JESUS TRULY PRESENT IN THE HOLY EUCHARIST

I devoutly adore you, O hidden Deity, truly hidden beneath these appearances. My whole heart submits to you, and in contemplating you, it surrenders itself completely.

Would you like to experience the best time of your life?
Saint Eugene is inviting to spend a holy hour of adoration once a week after the 8AM Mass every Thursday.
Please call the office or sign-up at Gathering Space in church.

HOPE AFTER ABORTION

“ Project Rachel was something I didn't truly think I needed. I had confessed my sin and received forgiveness. I had spent years of personal work and therapy to deal with the pain and depression I felt. In my heart I felt truly forgiven, but I still carried the shame and isolation of my burden—my secret. I was still condemning myself in that still quiet part of my spirit. A retreat announcement was in our bulletin—and on a leap of faith I signed up—not knowing at all what to expect or even to pray for. That retreat was a turning point in my life in so many ways... As a lifelong Catholic I never dreamed there were people just like me who had suffered the pain of abortion and were willing to share their journey to healing—to use their experience (with God's Grace) to transform the pain of others. The very secret that threatened to turn me from God and the church became transformed—reminding me that I am beloved by God—and that I belong to a church that is not only pro-life, but also pro-love and forgiveness. Project Rachel cares for us post-abortive women the way Christ Himself would. It is a true expression of the unconditional and undeserved love of God; empowered by the gifts of the Holy Spirit.”

If you desire healing from a past abortion, you are invited to experience the love of Jesus Christ at Project Rachel weekend retreat:

January 10-12, 2025

The weekend retreat is strictly confidential for both women and men and includes discussions, spiritual exercises, the Sacrament of Reconciliation, a Memorial Service and a Mass of Resurrection. Participation offers a beautiful opportunity to experience God's love, forgiveness and compassion.

For more information or to register for the retreat, contact Project Rachel: project.rachel@rldioc.org or call (919) 852-1021

The cost is $200 for lodging, meals, and all retreat materials. If you have a financial burden, assistance is available.
